

Curriculum Vitae

Surname:	Imtihani
First Name:	Najih
Academic Qualification:	Master
Venia Legendi (qualification to teach):	Japanese language and literature
Further Qualifications:	Linguistics

At the Higher Education Institution (to be accredited) since:	March, 1999
Level of Employment (part-time or full-time):	Full time
Teaching Focus:
Interdisciplinary Aspects:	Communication and culture, applied linguistics, and educational linguistics
Activities in the Areas:
- Further Education	Doctor (Media Studies, Doshisha University, Kyoto, Japan) Master (English Linguistics, Doshisha University, Kyoto, Japan)
- Research	An Analysis of Japanese Refusal Expression "A Systemic Functional Linguistics Approach"
- Consultancy	Japanese Language Certifications.
How are personal research activities reflected in teaching activities?	Course materials refer to research result in language policy domain, how implementing language strategy to students in French language learning.

Work experience:	- Lecturer at Japanese Language and Culture Study Program, Faculty of Cultural Science, Universitas Gadjah Mada
- General	Japanese lecturer
- Activities as an Expert:	Training for french teachers and lecturers at national level, certified from TV5Monde Paris, and FEI Minister of Education of France.
Publications:	- xxx
Memberships:	- 2005 Japan Association for Systemic Functional Linguistics (JASFL), International - 1999 Asosiasi Pengajar Bahasa Jepang Indonesia (ASBJ), National
International experience through:
- Management Activities	Cours director at Institut Francais Indonesia, French Embassy for Indonesia and Timor Leste (2011 - 2021)

- Academic Activities	Assistance in Preparing Japanese Language Training Syllabus Language Division, Innovation and Entrepreneurship Partnership Agency (BKIK) Universitas Galuh Ciamis
- Personal Background/ Experience	Travelling to Asian and European countries.
Other:	International Certified TV5Monde trainer, International Certified DELF/DALF Formateur des formateurs.